ORDER DENYING PARTIES' JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF DEADLINES

On this day, the above-styled matter came before the Court for consideration of the parties' Joint Motion for Extension of Time for Current Deadlines [Doc. 55], filed on October 8, 2012. In support of their motion, the parties assert that “[c]ounsel for the above-captioned parties have been engaged in good faith settlement discussions for the past 14 days,” and “[t]he parties wish to concentrate their efforts on the settlement discussions rather [than] motion practice and meeting other deadlines, wish to avoid the Parties incurring additional attorney fees and costs, and wish to avoid complicating settlement discussions with fees and costs that, under the current deadlines, will continue to increase substantially each day” The parties accordingly seek the following: (1) the Plaintiffs request that they be granted an extension until October 19, 2012, to respond to Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment [Doc. 39]; (2) the Plaintiffs request that they be granted an extension until October 24, 2012, to respond to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss [Doc. 52]; (3) the Defendants request that they be granted an extension until October 16, 2012, to file any objections to Magistrate Judge Seibert's Order Denying Motion to Compel [Doc. 51]; and (4) the Defendants request that they be granted an extension until October 19, 2012, to respond to Plaintiffs' Motion to Amend/Correct Complaint [Doc. 48].

This Court has a strong interest in keeping scheduled dates certain. Changes in dates and/or deadlines are disfavored. Therefore, any request, whether by application or stipulation, to continue the date and/or deadline of any matter before this Court must be supported by a sufficient basis that demonstrates good cause why the change in date is essential. This Court does not consider the desire for prolonged settlement negotiations to constitute such a basis. Therefore, the Court does not find good cause to grant the parties' Agreed Motion for Extension of Time for Current Deadlines [Doc. 55], and the same is accordingly DENIED.

It is so ORDERED.

The Clerk is directed to transmit copies of this Order to all counsel of record and/or pro se parties.

DATED: October 9, 2012.

GINA M. GROH
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
